Frequently Asked Questions

1. I may want to book the banquet room – where do I start?

First call the banquet coordinator to see if your date is available (Mindi Green - 630.750.0672, leave a message with the date you're interested in). Before we book the room for you, please drop by Wool Street (Barrington or Cary) and see it in person. This ensures that your expectations will be met regarding space and atmosphere. We have several rooms that are great for parties - Mindi will help you figure out which one is right for your event.

2. Where do I find the food options?

All of our banquet packages are here on our website. We have something for every kind of event, from a child's birthday party to a rehearsal dinner to a business function.

3. What if I want to just order off the menu?

If you have 15 or fewer guests at your event (maybe a meeting?), you may order from our regular menu. Minimums and deposits still apply, but this is a convenient option for a smaller group. If you have more than 15 guests, all food must be pre-ordered and listed on a planning sheet. This ensures we give you timely and efficient service during your event.

4. Is there a room charge?

No, there is no charge to rent the room. However, there are food & beverage minimums that you must meet. If your total food and beverage bill does not meet the minimum, you will be charged the minimum.

5. What about tip?

We include 20% gratuity on every bill. You may give more for exceptional service; however, it's not mandatory.

6. Are there any other charges?

Depending on the size and scope of your event, you may want linen on the eating tables. The charge for each table is $5. We provide linen for all buffet and cake tables at no charge.
